LOST.—Small package containing towel, embroidery, thimble and sissors. Finder will please leave at this office and receive reward. 13-2t

Oldest Elk Dead.

Judge Anthony Thornton, the oldest lawyer in Illinois, and said to be the oldest Elk in the world, died Saturday at his home at Shelbyville, Ills, aged 90. He continued to practice law until a few weeks ago, when he was taken ill. He was prominent in the Democratic party since 1856. Judge Thornton had been a member of Congress and member of the Illinois Supreme Court.

The deceased was an uncle of Miss Antonia Kinningham, of this city. He was born in Bourbon county and left here when 20 years of age.

Burglars Again on Rampage.

Some time after midnight, Sunday, burglars entered Current & Co.'s saloon, on Main street, and secured $26.50 in cash from the cash drawer, not molesting a number of checks that were in the drawer with the money. They affected an entrance by crawling through the front window, one of the glasses having been broken a short time ago and the firm contemplating putting in a new front, had not replaced the heavy glass, but had placed a thin piece over the opening. He was compelled to go through two heavy iron bars across the window, and must have been a small or thin burglar. He unbolted the back door and made his exit without any trouble.

On Saturday night, Mr. Ed. Long's residence, on Second street was entered, and the burglars carried away a valuable gold watch.

On Friday night, Woods Bros' saloon was entered by rear door and between $4 and $5 in change secured. They used a brace and bit in making their entrance here and also bored the cash drawer open. The brace and bit were stolen from a new house being built by Mr. Stamler in Thornton Division.

Clay-Washington Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Ezekiel F. Clay, Jr., of this county, to Miss Anna Lee Washington, is announced to take place to-morrow (Wednesday) at the home of the bride's parents, Col. and Mrs. Geo. Washington, at Newport, Ky. The announcement was for an earlier date, but was postponed until the above date on account of recent death in Mr. Clay's family, and the wedding will therefore be a very quiet one.

Miss Washington is well-known in this city, where she has won the hearts of all who ever heard her sweet singing, she being a gifted songstress. She is a beautiful, attractive and accomplished young lady.

Mr. Clay is a son of Col. E. F. Clay, and is a member of the firm of Clay Bros., the noted turfmen. He is one of Bourbon's most popular and successful young farmers.

We congratulate Mr. Clay on winning this lovely young woman for his bride.

Judge Cantrill's Trusted Servant a Thief.

Robert Shropshire, colored, employed for the past 17 years as carriage driver for the family of Judge James E. Cantrill, at Georgetown, was on Saturday arrested for theft, and when his home was searched the police made a rich haul.

He had probably been robbing the palatial Cantrill home for many years. Among the plunder found by the police was almost every article imaginable, from jewelry to furniture.

A number of pieces of fine cut glass, rare specimens of carved ivory, rich tapestries, many curios from foreign lands, even diamonds, were among the articles recovered by the police. Shropshire was lodged in jail.

Horace Tipton Dead.

Mr. S. E. Tipton received a letter from his daughter-in-law announcing the death of his son, Horace, at Sweet Springs, Montana, on September 3rd. Horace Tipton was about 47 years old. He was of a bright, jovial disposition and had many friends here in his boyhood home who regret to hear of his death. He was of a roving nature and had traveled almost around the world. He had not been home for a number of years.

Orphan Brigade Organized.

During the reunion at Lexington, last week, about twenty members of the Orphan Brigade held a meeting and formed an organization, and elected Capt. Ed. Spears, of Paris, president, and H. C. Payne, of Fayette, Secretary. There are about 145 members of the Orphan Brigade still living and efforts will be made to have them all present at the dedication of the Ed Porter Thompson monument in the Frankfort cemetery this Fall.

Hutshell—Ralls.

The marriage of Mr. James H. Hutshell, of Greenville, Miss., to Miss Nancy Ralls, of Sharpshurg, will be solemnized at the home of the bride Thursday. Miss Ralls is the daughter of Mr. E. B. Ralls, a prominent farmer, and is one of the handsomest women in Kentucky. Mr. Hutshell is formerly of this county, where he is well and favorably known and is now a prosperous business man of Mississippi.

Carroll Named.

Governor Beckham was officially notified Saturday that Judge Cantrill would preside at the present term of the Franklin Circuit Court, which began yesterday, and he at once appointed John D. Carroll, of Henry County, one of Judge Cantrill's late opponents for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to act in Judge Cantrill's place.

Any in the market for sewing machines will do well to take advantage of the following offer. Drop High Arm latest improved Singer Sewing Machines—worth $60 for $30 cash. Apply at News office or address box 142, Paris, Ky. 1t

It's the Truth.

Yes, sir, it's the truth! They began breaking dirt on Main street, yesterday, on the square between Fifth and Sixth streets. We were standing in front of J. T. Hinton's furniture store when they started the eight horse plow. It's a go "sure as you're born."

Sale of Land.

Auctioneer Forsyth reports sale of 180 acres of unimproved land, belonging to Chenault heirs, near Mt. Sterling, on Saturday, to Bishop Clay, of Lexington, at $79.30 per acre. One hundred acres adjoining was sold previously at private sale to Chief Justice Orear, at $77.50 per acre.

Jewish Holiday.

I wish to inform my customers that my store will be closed on Monday, Yom Kippur, a Jewish holiday. 13-2t LOUIS SALOSHIN.

THE PLACE TO BUY.—If in need of a Buggy, Surrey, Farm Wagon or Farming Implements see me before buying. I also have a number of second-hand buggies and surreys in good repair for sale cheap. 1t J. H. HAGGARD.
